Handing over responsibility of approving rural road construction proposals to IIT and RECs

863. PROF. M. SANKARALINGAM: Will the Minister of RURAL DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the Ministry has handed over the responsibility of approving rural road construction proposals under the Pradhan Mantri Gram Sadak Yojana to IIT's Regional Engineering Colleges and other Government Institutions;

(b) if so, the basis for such a decision;

(c) what is the present status of this Yojana; and

(d) whether it is moving on as per schedule?

THE MINISTER OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRI SHANTA KUMAR): (a) and (b) No, Sir. The project proposals formulated by the State Governments/Union Territories are cleared by the Ministry. The Ministry has identified certain reputed institutions to, thereupon scrutinise the appropriateness of the design and estimates of the individuals road works, with a view to ensuring adherence to optimal design and costs.

(c) and (d) Project proposals to the tune of Rs. 7553.28 crore have, so far, been cleared under the Pradhan Mantri Gram Sadak Yojana (PMGSY) and the works are in various stages of execution, 7221 of the 12867 road works taken up in the year 2000-2001 have since been completed and others are expected to be completed by December, 2002. The road works cleared in the year 2001-2002 have commenced in most States and are also expected, by and large, to be completed during the current year. The progress of works is being regularly reviewed with the State Governments/Union Territory Administrations in the interest of timely completion of the same.
